

A look at infrastructure investment from 2018-2023 in Philadelphia

Friday, October 27, 2023 2:50 PM (20 minutes)

In the past 5 years, Philadelphia has seen economic boom, COVID-19 and its concurrent economic bust, and the subsequent, if halting, recovery. Has the recovery been equitable? What economic sectors are still strong in this “new normal?” What issues in infrastructure building and transportation have been seen since the recovery began in 2021? And what does this mean for larger cities as they seek to allocate investment in infrastructure for the future?

Primary author: QUODOMINE, Richard (City of Philadelphia)

Presenter: QUODOMINE, Richard (City of Philadelphia)

Session Classification: Paper Presentations

Track Classification: Climate & Climate Change