

The Purpose of a Map Library in this Digital Age

Friday, October 27, 2023 10:10 AM (1h 20m)

As digital technology produces a culture of accessibility to modern day maps and digital data, this panel explores the state of Map Libraries in Public institutions, how they may be changing, how they should or could change and why they are still important. An open discussion is invited from the audience.

Primary authors: MICHEV, Boris (University of Pittsburgh); Dr CAMPBEL, Craig (Youngstown State University); CERNEY, Dawna (Youngstown State University); RATCLIFFE, Michael (U.S. Census Bureau)

Presenters: MICHEV, Boris (University of Pittsburgh); Dr CAMPBEL, Craig (Youngstown State University); CERNEY, Dawna (Youngstown State University); RATCLIFFE, Michael (U.S. Census Bureau)

Session Classification: Panel

Track Classification: Digital Geography